

9th of January, 2025

Tennis coach for Roskilde Tennis Club

Roskilde Tennis Club is looking for a committed and dedicated tennis coach who wants to join our club and make a difference for players of all levels. We offer an exciting and versatile position with the opportunity to influence the development of one of Denmark's medium-sized tennis clubs.

About Roskilde Tennis Club

We are a tradition-rich and dynamic club with approximately 850 members consisting of juniors, recreational players and veterans. The club has:

- Modern facilities: 13 outdoor courts, 4 indoor courts and 2 padel courts.
 - Elite teams: Best women's and men's teams in the 1st division outdoor and 2nd division indoor.
 - Ambitions: We wish to expand our junior department and strengthen our talent environment in collaboration with Team Danmark, Roskilde Municipality, the Danish Tennis Federation, Tennis East and DGI.
 - A strong team: Club manager, groundskeeper, accountant, coaches, young assistant coaches, an active board and enthusiastic volunteers.
-

Your primary tasks

As a tennis coach at Roskilde Tennis Club, you will play an important role in the club's development. Among other things, you will:

- Provide on-court tennis lessons for players of all levels, approximately 25 hours per week.
 - Prepare training plans and be co-responsible for the club's rankings and training framework.
 - Be a sparring partner at team matches and tournaments, including match observation and coaching at tournaments.
 - Contribute to the development of the club's training culture, communities and strengthening the talent/elite environment.
 - Plan and implement activities such as pre-season training camps and other events for both juniors and seniors.
-

Who are you?

We are looking for a coach who:

9th of January, 2025

- Is passionate about coaching and wants to work with players at all levels - from non-elite to elite.
- Wants to develop and realise your ideas in a club where you have influence and responsibility.
- Is a team player who thrives in communities and works well with others.
- Is motivated by creating well-being, community and experiences that can turn players into "tennis players for life".

We offer

- A permanent position with good development opportunities.
- A committed club where you will be at the centre of an ambitious environment.
- The opportunity to make your mark on the future of the club and work with players of all ages.

Application and contact

If you are interested in the position, please send your application and CV to Club Manager Carsten Højerslev at klubchef@roskildetennisklub.dk, and we will continuously interview suitable candidates.

If you have any questions about the position, you are very welcome to contact us by e-mail or SMS/call at 2366 8838.

We look forward to hearing from you!